

Anti-Bribery, Anti-Corruption and Business Gifts policies

1. Prohibition of Bribery: SLP holds a zero-tolerance policy for bribery and corruption in all its forms, both within the organization and in interactions with clients, vendors, and other stakeholders.
2. Due Diligence: SLP conducts due diligence on potential clients, vendors, and other relevant third parties to assess their integrity and compliance with anti-bribery and anti-corruption standards.
3. Reporting and Whistleblower Protection: SLP plans to establish a confidential and secure reporting mechanism for employees to report any suspected violations of the ABAC policy. The firm will also ensure protection against retaliation for reporting in good faith.
4. Disclosure and Transparency: SLP requires employees to report all business gifts given or received to the appropriate authority within the firm, ensuring transparency and accountability.
